

Seminar on “Agromet services playing a catalytic role in doubling farmer income”

A farmers seminar on “Agromet services playing a catalytic role in doubling farmers income” was organised by District agromet unit, Krishi Vigayan Kendra, ICAR-NRRI, CUTTACK, Odisha On 03.03.2022 at KVK Cuttack campus. Dr Padmini swain, Director, ICAR-NRRI, Cuttack, Dr Kripan Ghosh (Virtually present), Scientist-F & Head, Agrimet div, pune, Dr HR Biswas, Scientist-E & Head, MC-IMD, BBSR, Dr Anupama Baliarsingh, Prof, Agronomy, OUAT, Dr GAK Kumar, Head SSD & Principal Scientist, NRRI, Dr SD Mohapatra, Principal Scientist, crop protection division, NRRI, Cuttack, Sri Umasankar Das, Scientist-C, MC-IMD, BBSR, Dr Sujata Sethy, OIC, KVK, Cuttack and other delegates and scientist/experts from KVK and around 100 farmers of Cuttack district attended in that seminar. Main objective of the seminar is to sensitize the farmer about the importance of Agromet Services and role of weather forecast in agriculture and empower the farming community to adopt to climate change in agriculture and allied sectors.

Glimpses of “Agromet services playing a catalytic role in doubling farmer income”