

Farmers Awareness programme on “Block Level Weather Forecast Based Agromet Service System” under SCSP

KVK Cuttack organized five Awareness programmes on ‘Block level weather forecast based agromet service system’ under SCSP on December 18, 2023, January 4 & 19, 2024 and February 15, 2024, at Mugagahiri and Tunapur village of Badsamba, Koodukul of Mahanga, Gurujanga of Tangi-Choudwar and Katarpada of Nischintakoili block of Cuttack district. About three hundred farmers, farmwomen, rural youth, and extension officials participated in these programmes. Sri Debasish Jena, SMS (Agrometeorology) highlighted the importance of block level agromet service (implemented by KVK Cuttack) and explained the significance of block level weather forecast on agriculture. Dr Ranjan Mohanta, senior scientist and Head, KVK Cuttack attended some of awareness programmes and briefed about the achievements of DAMU, KVK Cuttack and also sensitized the farmers to follow the block level agromet advisory services to adopt to the climate change in agriculture.

Glimpses of Farmers Awareness programme DAMU under SCSP