

Training programme on “Entrepreneurship development through scientific mushroom cultivation”

KVK Cuttack organized a five-days training programme for Rural Youth at its campus on “Entrepreneurship development through scientific mushroom cultivation” from October 09-13, 2023. Dr Sujata Sethy, SMS (Home Science) coordinated the training programme and discussed different aspects of mushroom production, types of mushrooms, cultivation practices of paddy straw, oyster and milky mushroom and entrepreneurship development through mushroom production through different classroom sessions, practical, exposure visit etc. Demonstration programmes on mushroom production technologies also conducted and mushroom spawn as initial input were provided to the trainees. Dr RK Mohanta, Head, KVK, Cuttack chaired the valedictory session of the programme and distributed the certificates to the participants. Twenty-five rural youths participated from different blocks like Salepur, Mahanga, Tangi-Choudwar, Badamba and Narasinghpur of Cuttack district.

Glimpses of Training Programme