

Advances in Poultry Production

Krishi Vigyan Kendra Cuttack, Santhapur organized a five-day training programme for thirty number of grass-level extension functionaries called Pranimitras from Kantapada, Banki-Dompada and Badamba and Tangi-Choudwar block of the district at its campus on “Advances in Poultry Production” from 12-16 January 2024. Dr Ranjan Kumar Mohanta, Senior Scientist and Head, KVK Cuttack and course director of the training programme discussed different aspects of poultry farming, housing, breeding, feeding, homemade feed preparation, brooding and vaccination of chicks, disease, and day-to-day management of poultry through different classroom sessions, practical and hands-on training etc. Demonstration programmes on poultry feed preparation and common medicines and supplements used for poultry were conducted for the trainees.

Glimpses of “Advances in Poultry Production”